

Hopkinsville Kentuckian.

THEO. E. BARTLEY, Editor.
TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1889.

PERSONAL GOSSIP.

Miss Bettie Stevenson is visiting friends in Louisville.
Miss Lillie Woodbridge has returned from Clarksville.
Miss Lillie McElwain, Trenton, is visiting Miss Lillie Rust.
Mrs. Andrew Sargent is visiting friends in Little Rock, Ark.
Mrs. Col. H. Alexander and son, Owensboro, are visiting at B. F. College.
Mrs. Anne Holland returned Saturday from a week's visit to friends in Paducah.
Mrs. Waller, after a pleasant visit to relatives, returned Wednesday to Hopkinsville.—Tobacco Leaf.
Mrs. Emma Ashby, of Slaughter, a former graduate of the B. F. College, is visiting her sister, Miss Gussie Nelson.
Mr. James Boyd, of Danville, Tex., a native of this place, is making a visit to his brother Ed Boyd, of Galt's drug store.
Maj. Ad. Rust, formerly of Pembroke, is in the city. He will take charge of a tobacco stemmy at Mr. W. T. Radford's on the latter's farm.
Miss Eliza England, daughter of Mr. John B. England, southwest of town, returned the past week from a pleasant visit to friends and relatives in Christian county, Ky.—Murray News.

CREAM OF NEWS.

To-Morrow Night's Musical Treat.
The only genuine musical treat of the season for Hopkinsville will be the concert of the Orchestra Club to-morrow evening, for which a large number of seats have already been sold. In speaking of this superb combination, the Hopkinsville Journal says: "The Boston Symphony Orchestra Club made its first appearance in this city as a concert given in Association Hall Thursday evening. A very large audience crowded the hall, and it included an unusual number of well-known critics and musicians, yet the success of the club was acknowledged with a unanimity and enthusiasm that are seldom witnessed. Every member of the organization is manifestly an artist, and the playing ensemble is characterized by some of the best gradations of light and shade, as well as purity of tone, and unity of attack. The most interesting feature of the concert by far was the remarkably virtuosos, refined, and delightful performance by Mr. Willis Nowell of Sarasota's Fantasia on 'Faust.' Mr. Nowell is the accomplished concert master of the club, and his rendering of the fantasia was simply a marvel of artistic finish, the charming effect of which was acknowledged in some of the heartiest applause of the evening; and the 'cello solos by Mr. Phillip Roth unmistakably proved him to be a genuine artist. The singing of the 'Jewel Song' from 'Faust,' by Miss Eliza Clark-Cushing, was warmly encored."

The New Tax Collector.
The City Council held a special meeting Friday afternoon and elected Walter A. Radford city tax collector. There were 25 applicants for the office and 25 ballots were taken before a result was reached. A caucus had been held by the new members, but for some reason they decided not to be bound by it and the balloting began with all hands on an equal footing. The chairman did not vote and the first ballot stood: Polk Canister 2, Will Withers 1, S. G. Buckner 1, J. S. Ragdale 1, W. A. Radford 1. The voting was very scattering until on the 18th ballot when the fight narrowed down to Walter Kelly, A. M. Wallis and W. A. Radford, who received two votes each. After some scattering the 24th stood like the 18th and on the 25th Wallis and Radford had 3 votes each and the chair decided the tie by voting for Radford. It is understood that Hill, Forbes, Dabney and Radford voted for Radford and Campbell, Brown and Gilliland for Wallis. The new collector is at present a salesman for A. G. Bush. He is less than 22 but a young man of good morals and splendid character. He will probably have his office in Mr. Bush's store. He will have to qualify and give bond at the March meeting.

Clarksville's City Officers.
(Continued.)
The council chamber was filled to overflowing last night by citizens who had come to attend the meeting of the Board of Aldermen and Mayor and to see who they appointed to the local offices. The aldermen proceeded at once to business and re-elected C. H. Bailey, Recorder; W. E. Beach, Treasurer; J. J. West, City Attorney; Clay Stacker, City Marshal; Chief of Police, A. C. Stafford. Several candidates were presented for police officers, and G. Holliman, and Joe Murphy were elected day police, and J. K. Smith and Pat Gintley, night police. W. W. Warden was elected cemetery trustee and T. Jackson, Market Inspector. B. W. Ballantine was re-elected bridge-keeper.

An Incendiary Fire.
Joel Boyd, a farmer living near the poor house, a few miles north of the city, lost his tobacco barn by fire Friday night. The barn contained his entire crop of tobacco of fifteen acres. The fire was undoubtedly the work of an incendiary, as there had been no fire in the barn for a month. It is to be hoped the guilty party may be discovered and brought to justice. Fortunately the property was insured for $500.

THIS AND THAT.

The fine weather has been resumed this week.
Ellis' city transfer began operations yesterday.
Hogers & Davis' livery stable, Fritz's old stand.
Go to A. G. Bush for boots and shoes and save money.
Hopkinsville has turned out five new drummers this year.
J. G. Ellis, the livery man, had one of his best horses to die Saturday.
There will be a Valentine party at Hord's Hall next Thursday evening.
Paper sacks for putting up hams for sale at this office, at from 1 1/2 to 3 cents each.
The Driving Park has fixed upon October 16-19 as the time for its next annual fair.
Hooser & Ballard have been awarded the contract for roofing the new Latham warehouse.

The prohibition election is less than three weeks off and the excitement is increasing every day.
Don't forget the great play, "The Rolling Passion"—to-night. It will be a splendid play and should draw a big house.
Nine barns, so far as we have a record, have been burned in Christian county since the tobacco crop was housed.
Mr. Forshee made his regular monthly visit to this city Saturday and was visited by a large number of patients.

R. Cook Roach, of the firm of R. W. Roach & Co., Clarksville, has retired from the firm, having sold his interest to his brother.

The exact weight of the new city horses is 1,425 and 1,457 pounds, respectively. The freight on the team which the city paid was $25.35.

Tom Parsh, col., was arrested at Henderson Saturday. He is the last of the gang who stole the property of the Metcalf Manufacturing Co.

About two inches of snow fell Friday morning, which disappeared within twenty-four hours. This was the third snow and the deepest of the season.

Coal at Hopkinsville is selling at 1 1/2 cents per bushel. We are sorry for our neighbors. We warm at just about half that price.—Madisonville Hatter.

Walter Owen and Henry Wright had a personal difficulty near the brick church last Thursday night and Wright shot at Owen, but did him no injury.

Hon. H. S. Irwin, of Louisville, will deliver a humorous lecture in this city, on February 18th, subject: "We and Otherwise; or, The Grave and Gay in Society."

Members of the Knights of Pythias are drilling almost every night this week at their hall, preparatory to their trip to Hopkinsville on the 19th inst.—Clarksville Progress.

Chief Locating Engineer Boyder, of the O. V., went South yesterday and will go South from Hopkinsville, by land, in interest of the Ohio Valley extension. Henderson Gleaner 7th.

Clark & Eades have sold out their meat shop in the Steuber building on Main street, to L. E. Elkins and J. H. Witty, who will continue business under the firm name of Elkins & Witty.

Joe Anderson, col., was arrested Sunday for stealing E. C. Abbott's pistol from Hipkins' stable. The pistol was recovered and Anderson is in jail to await the action of the grand jury.

Mrs. E. B. Long gave an entertainment Friday in honor of her guest Miss Lulu Watkins. A large number of the young people were present and the evening was very delightfully spent.

Another large temperance mass meeting was held at the Christian church Sunday afternoon and speeches were made by S. W. Forgy, Rev. H. A. Macdonald and Mr. Joseph Chaney. The latter gentleman will lecture again to-night, at the court house.

Miss Jennie D. Peay, who taught the public school at Casey, in district number 70, is now teaching a spring term at the same place. She is an excellent and very competent teacher and gave entire satisfaction to trustees and patrons during the entire public term.

The Chautauqua Club has secured Col. Geo. R. Wendling to deliver the sixth lecture of the series. This will give much pleasure to the people of Hopkinsville, who accord no other lecturer the place in their good opinion held by Col. Wendling. He is the finest lecturer on the platform in the United States, and will draw a packed house in this city.

Temperance Speaking.
Luther Benson will begin a series of lectures in this county, on Temperance, next week, as follows:
Herdon, Tuesday night, Feb. 12.
Lafayette, Wednesday night, Feb. 13.
Hamby, Monday night, Feb. 17.
Bellevue (Shiloh church), Friday night, Feb. 15.
Balsbridge, Saturday night, Feb. 16.
Scales Mill, Sunday night, Feb. 17.
Hamby, Monday night, Feb. 28.
Hopkinsville, Tuesday night, Feb. 19.
Speaking to begin at 7:30 p. m.

These will be Free Lectures, and all, especially the ladies, are invited to come out and hear him.

Mr. Benson is a lecturer of national fame and comes with the very highest recommendations.

An Elegant Substitute.
For oils, salts, pills, and all kinds of bitter, nauseous medicines, is the very agreeable liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs. Recommended by leading Physicians. Manufactured only by the California Fig Syrup Company. For sale in 50 cents and $1.00 bottles.

SOCIAL SENSATION.

A HENDERSON MASHER ENTICES A HOPKINSVILLE GIRL INTO AN ASSIGNATION HOUSE.

He is Threatened by Her Uncle And Later Publishes a False and Insulting Statement.

Our neighboring city of Henderson was all torn up last week over a social sensation, which culminated in the coming of a young man named Gus Slaughter by P. H. Cunningham on account of insults offered to a young lady who was visiting at his home. The young lady in the case is Miss Lila Winfree, daughter of Judge W. P. Winfree, of this city, and as the matter is now the "town talk" of Henderson and Hopkinsville a plain presentation of the facts is proper at this time.

On Jan. 12 a Polo Club excursion left Henderson by boat for Evansville. Gus G. Slaughter, Jr., and Miss Winfree were of the party, he acting as her escort; when the party reached Evansville and started up town to take supper at the Lotta restaurant, Slaughter told Miss Winfree that he had received an invitation to take supper with Mr. Leo Hard, a friend of his. He further informed her that he had spoken to Mrs. Major, the chairwoman of the crowd, and her consent had been given for Miss Winfree to go with him to Mr. Hard's if they would return in time to enjoy the party before they left. They then took a cab and Slaughter drove directly to a house kept by "Nellie Campbell" and helped the young lady out. She asked if that was Mr. Hard's and was answered affirmatively. They were met at the door by a woman who showed them into the reception room and left. Slaughter then got up and locked the door. Miss Winfree arose and asked, "What do you mean?" With a laugh and an oath he informed her that they were in an assignation house. Still ignorant of the character of the house, she however realized that she had been deceived into entering an improper place, and going to the door she unlocked it and fled out into the darkness. Slaughter overtook her and, taking hold of her arm, walked with her to the Lotta restaurant, where her friends were. He first tried to beg her to say nothing about the matter, and finally threatened to kill her father if she told him and trouble came up. He also told her that it would ruin her character, not to tell the matter public, and in fact used every means to induce her to keep it quiet. As soon as she reached the Lotta, Miss Winfree refused to have anything further to do with Slaughter, but asked another young man to escort her to the risk and told him the story of Slaughter's attempted villainy when he insisted upon knowing why she appeared to be so agitated and excited. As soon as she reached Henderson she told her aunt, Mrs. Cunningham, who feared that trouble would result kept the affair from her husband until the matter came to his ears as town talk. In the meantime Miss Lila had returned home. On Sunday the 3rd Mr. Cunningham heard of it and came to this city and was given the facts in the case by Miss Lila. He returned to Henderson and wrote out a statement and on Thursday called Slaughter into a store and after giving him a sound thrashing with a stick made him sign it.

In the papers of Saturday Slaughter published a card repudiating this statement, saying that he had been forced to sign it from fear of assassination. He further caused an untruthful version of the Evansville affair to be published in one of the Evansville papers, in which he alleged that the young lady knew where she was being taken to, but upon arriving refused to go in the house whereupon he gave her some "good advice" and took her back to the party. Mr. Cunningham came to this city Sunday and yesterday Judge Winfree accompanied by Judge McCarrall and Col. Clark left for Henderson with Miss Lila's statement in writing, giving the facts as they occurred.

The Owensboro Messenger, of Sunday also contains the following, purporting to be Slaughter's version of the affair:

"He said he first met the young lady, who is about nineteen years old, about the 1st of January, or probably during Christmas week. Some time between the 3d and 10th of January he accompanied her with a large party to Evansville to witness a polo match between the Henderson and Evansville clubs at the Evans Hall rink. The day before they went to Evansville he asked him if there were such places as assignation houses, and the conversation thus began led to a proposal by her that they visit one in Evansville. They took upon their arrival there they told their friends that they were going to take supper with Mr. Leo Hard, who formerly lived in Henderson. They went directly to the polo place, but arriving there, Slaughter says he asked her if she had ever before given up her virtue, and upon her declaration that she had not, he said that he would not be the one to depose her, and immediately took her away. The statement that he threatened her with a pistol or that she fled unattended to her friends he pronounces unfoundedly false. He says they returned to her friends at the Lotta restaurant and went with them to the rink; that he returned with her to Henderson the same night, called on her the next night and was frequently with her during the remainder of her stay in Henderson, bidding her good-bye at the train when she left for home, and that until their parting they were the best of friends. He says some one followed them in Evansville and discovered their stopping place and afterward threatened the girl that unless she told her aunt all, she should learn it through others, and thus coerced she told her aunt he knows not what, but certainly not the truth. He claims that she told others, by whom it could be proven, quite a different tale."

It is hardly necessary to say here, where the young lady is known, that this statement is a lie from beginning to end. His attempt to impute falsehood to her after his gross insult and his further effort to besmirch the character of a pure innocent girl whom he had foolishly attempted to ruin, show him in his true light as a base, unprincipled scoundrel, who is unfit to encumber the earth with his loathsome presence. Slaughter is a young dude about 21 years old, a son of respectable parents, who has heretofore been himself considered a gentleman.

He continued after the Evansville affair to visit Mr. Cunningham—other young ladies belong to him or take any further notice of him up to the time she left for home.

The young lady who has been brought into such public notice is the eldest daughter of the county judge of Christian county and one of the belles of Hopkinsville. Her character, it is needless to say, has always been above reproach and she has ever been esteemed by all as a pure, sweet girl. Of a happy, vivacious disposition, she is a favorite with all who know her and there is not a man, woman or child in Hopkinsville who will believe that there is one atom of truth in the statement of this foul-mouthed defamer of virtue and innocence. Beautiful, accomplished and ladylike and above all possessing a mind of more than usual strength and much of her father's firmness, she had the good sense and courage to expose the man who had so grossly insulted her, though for a time her friends persuaded her to keep it from being made public.

Other developments may be expected in the affair, as Judge Winfree will demand the fullest satisfaction and every necessary apology before he permits the matter to drop. He is a mild mannered christian gentleman, but as courageous a man as ever lived and he is determined that Slaughter shall be placed before the public in his proper light, and has gone to Henderson for that purpose.

Circle Meeting at Crofton.
The next meeting of Circle No. 7 and 8 of the Bethel Association will be held with the Baptist Church at Crofton, beginning Friday evening March 23 and continuing till Sunday evening the 31st. It is hoped that representatives from the following churches will be present: Hopkinsville, Sinking Fork, Concord, Mt. Zion, Pleasant Hill, West Mt. Zion, Ebenezer, North Liberty, Oak Grove, No. 3, Mt. Taber, New Barren Springs, Pleasant Hill, Macedonia and from any other neighboring churches. Our Ministering brethren and pastors, Spurlin, Hopson, Tinsley, Baggitt, Dorris, Boyd, Prestreidge, Dagg, Malone, Lyon and Clark are urgently requested to be present.

The program has been thus far arranged: South America by Rev. J. N. Prestreidge; Cuba, Texas, Romania, Mexico by Chas. M. Meacham; Africa by Dr. B. F. Kager; Church Finances, Walter F. Garrett; Care for the poor, Deacon W. L. Trice; The relation of Church members to the Sunday School, Rev. Boyd. The Wants of our churches and the new phases of Mission work, Speakers appointed hereafter. The proverbial hospitality of Crofton insures a hearty welcome and cordial entertainment to all who may attend.

J. W. Rust, Vice President.

Oil In Todd.
Some excitement is reported from Todd county over the discovery of petroleum on the farm of Mrs. Tucker, near Sharon Grove. Evidence of coal having been found on the land, some men were digging for that, when at a depth of only twenty-five feet they struck a vein of sandstone rock, saturated in oil. When these rocks were placed in the fire the oil in the pores burned brilliantly. I. G. Coles removed several rocks, and some of them have been sent to Nashville for analysis. It is believed a stream of oil can be found at a greater depth, and a well will be sunk if the verdict of the geologists is such as will justify it.

Coal at Old Prices!
I am still selling the celebrated Peacock Coal at 12c for Lump and 10c for Nut, delivered, or 11c for Lump and 9c for Nut, in yard. Send in your orders.

T. H. RICHARDSON.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castor's, When she was a Child, she craved for Castor's, When she became Miss, she clung to Castor's, When she had Children, she gave them Castor's.

THOS. H. GAINES.

Are You Going to the Inauguration.
The N. N. & M. V. Co., will sell tickets to Washington, D. C., from all stations, at one limited fare for the round-trip. Feb. 28th to March 3rd, good returning March 8th, 1889. From Beaver Dam.....$18.55
" Central City.....19.10
" Greenville.....19.30
" Nortonville.....19.80
" Princeton.....20.70
" Paducah.....22.05
" Mayfield, Fulton & Rives 22.25
H. W. FULMER, G. P. A.

Subscribe for the KENTUCKIAN, it is only $2.00 a year.

MARRIED.

Mr. Will T. Berg and Miss Lottie A. Stevenson will be married at 8:30 p. m. to-day, at the home of the bride's parents, in Louisville.
The groom is the son of Col. W. J. Berg, the popular traveling passenger agent of the C. & O. railroad, and holds the position of assistant ticket agent of the C. & O. at Cincinnati. The bride is one of Louisville's most accomplished and attractive young ladies.
The couple will leave on an extensive trip South.

Marriage Licenses.
Marriage licenses have been issued since our last issue to the following: W. R. Howell to C. E. Gtwer.

COLORED.
Jno. Robinson to Zora Pennington. Louis Younglove to Georgia Morris.

SPECIAL LOCALS.

An Endorsement.
Mr. J. E. Claiborne being the originator of the street sprinkling in this city, and having done that work to the entire satisfaction of all parties concerned, and furthermore having invested his money in the necessary apparatus for conducting the work, now we, the undersigned business men of the city of Hopkinsville, think that, under the circumstances, the contract for this work for the coming summer should be awarded to him, and we will give him our work for 1889.

Planters Bank, Jas. M. Hipkins, E. W. Henderson & Son, M. S. Perkins & Co., W. T. Cooper, City Bank, Jas. M. Howe, Thompson & Meador, M. D. Kelly, Thompson & McElroy, A. A. Metz, G. E. Galtier, W. J. Burnett, Hoover & Ballard, Jones & Co., Lea, Johnson & Overhiser, C. M. Latham, J. R. Green & Co., A. G. Bush, C. B. Webb, H. B. Garner, B. Rosenbaum, Ford Schmitt, H. W. Tibbs, Anderson & Tate, Peter Postel, Pooley Reese & Co., C. R. Clark & Co., J. B. Galtier, Buckner Leavelle, N. B. Shyer, Guyton & Merrill, Bicketts & Davis, Mrs. Carrie Hart, P. E. Dicken & Wall, R. M. Anderson, W. R. Long, Gus Young, D. Galtier, Henry Drexler.

$1,000 in 7 Years!
Second payment in Philadelphia of dual benefits, $82,000 to 98 members. Order of the Iron Hall. For further information apply to John Mosyon, Cashier of the order of the Iron Hall.

Thompson Wheelbarrow Seeder sows Clover, Timothy, Red Top, Orchard Grass, Blue Grass. Warranted. Jno. R. Green & Co.

FOR RENT!
A new cottage to let on Bryan St. Price $10 per month. Apply to J. H. DAGG.

NOW IS THE TIME
To have your carriages and buggies put in good repair, for Spring and summer use. The best and cheapest place is at the Blumenstiel C'ge. Co.

CONSUMPTION CURED.
An old physician, retired from practice, having found in his hand by an Indian medicine the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma, Croup, Whooping Cough, Sore Throat, and all Affections of the Throat, Lungs and Breasts, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellow-men. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge to all who desire it, this medicine, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. A. Noves, 149 Power's Block, Rochester, N. Y.

The New Coal Firm
OF WOOLDRIDGE & CO.
Will give you the best coal on the market, give you full weight and fill your orders promptly. Call on them at their yard, corner 13th and Railroad streets.

Being manufacturers' agents for the Iron Duke Harrow, we offer you two and three section Harrows greatly improved over last year. See our new Iron Duke in the buying.

Jno. R. Green & Co.

If You Want
A new Buggy or carriage, call on us. We will give you the best and the cheapest Blumenstiel C'ge. Co.

COAL AT OLD PRICES!
I am still selling the celebrated Peacock Coal at 12c for Lump and 10c for Nut, delivered, or 11c for Lump and 9c for Nut, in yard. Send in your orders.

T. H. RICHARDSON.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castor's, When she was a Child, she craved for Castor's, When she became Miss, she clung to Castor's, When she had Children, she gave them Castor's.

THOS. H. GAINES.

Are You Going to the Inauguration.
The N. N. & M. V. Co., will sell tickets to Washington, D. C., from all stations, at one limited fare for the round-trip. Feb. 28th to March 3rd, good returning March 8th, 1889. From Beaver Dam.....$18.55
" Central City.....19.10
" Greenville.....19.30
" Nortonville.....19.80
" Princeton.....20.70
" Paducah.....22.05
" Mayfield, Fulton & Rives 22.25
H. W. FULMER, G. P. A.

Subscribe for the KENTUCKIAN, it is only $2.00 a year.

SPECIAL LOCALS.

FARMERS!
I can do your repairing and furnish you with new wagons and plows at prices that will suit you. Call on me at my new shop on 17th street, just above Fonks' coal yard. J. J. AUSTIN.

Farmers, have you examined the "New Deere Corn Planter and Check Harrow," the "New Deere Disc Harrow," the "New Deere Walking and Riding Cultivator," with parallel motion? If not, do so at once, and you will buy no other.

Jno. R. Green & Co.

FOR SALE CHEAP
One young mule 16 hands high six years old. Also one horse, good saddle and fine roadster. Medium size six years old. Call at once. C. W. Metcalfe.

LOST.
One bay mare mule, 14 hands high nearly new, six years old, good order. Liberal reward offered for her return to me. M. HANNA.

OPERA HOUSE, FEB. 12
TUESDAY.
THE GREAT SPECTACULAR SUCCESS,
THE RULING
PASSION.

Christian Circuit Court.
ANDREW HALL and ANNE HALL, his wife, vs. EX PARTE. This day came the petitioners, Andrew Hall and Anne Hall, his wife, and filed their respective petitions in the office of the Clerk of the Christian Circuit Court, praying that the Court would by decree empower the said Andrew Hall to use, enjoy, sell and convey for her own benefit any property she may own or hereafter acquire, free from the claims of her husband, and to trade in her own name, and to dispose of her property by will or deed. It is ordered that a copy of this order be published in the Hopkinsville Kentuckian, a newspaper published in Hopkinsville, Christian county, Kentucky, the length of time prescribed by law.

Given under my hand, as Clerk of the Christian Circuit Court, this 9th day of Jan'y, 1889. CYRUS M. BROWN, Clerk. A copy. Att. CYRUS M. BROWN, Clerk. Joe McCarroll, Attorney. Feb. 1st

Christian Circuit Court.
CHARLES W. DUCKER and ANNE E. DUCKER, his wife, vs. EX PARTE. This day came the petitioners, Charles W. Ducker and Anne E. Ducker, his wife, and filed their respective petitions in the office of the Clerk of the Christian Circuit Court, praying that the Court would by decree empower the said Charles W. Ducker to use, enjoy, sell and convey for her own benefit any property she may own or hereafter acquire, free from the claims of her husband, and to trade in her own name, and to dispose of her property by will or deed. It is ordered that a copy of this order be published in the Hopkinsville Kentuckian, a newspaper published in Hopkinsville, Christian county, Kentucky, the length of time prescribed by law.

Given under my hand, as Clerk of the Christian Circuit Court, this 9th day of Jan'y, 1889. CYRUS M. BROWN, Clerk. A copy. Att. CYRUS M. BROWN, Clerk. Joe McCarroll, Attorney. Feb. 1st

Christian Circuit Court.
M. A. GUTHRIE and SARAH E. GUTHRIE, his wife, vs. EX PARTE. This day came the petitioners, M. A. Guthrie and Sarah E. Guthrie, his wife, and filed their respective petitions in the office of the Clerk of the Christian Circuit Court, praying that the Court would by decree empower the said M. A. Guthrie to use, enjoy, sell and convey for her own benefit any property she may own or hereafter acquire, free from the claims of her husband, and to trade in her own name, and to dispose of her property by will or deed. It is ordered that a copy of this order be published in the Hopkinsville Kentuckian, a newspaper published in Hopkinsville, Christian county, Kentucky, the length of time prescribed by law.

Given under my hand, as Clerk of the Christian Circuit Court, this 9th day of Jan'y, 1889. CYRUS M. BROWN, Clerk. A copy. Att. CYRUS M. BROWN, Clerk. Joe McCarroll, Attorney. Feb. 1st

Christian Circuit Court.
M. A. GUTHRIE and SARAH E. GUTHRIE, his wife, vs. EX PARTE. This day came the petitioners, M. A. Guthrie and Sarah E. Guthrie, his wife, and filed their respective petitions in the office of the Clerk of the Christian Circuit Court, praying that the Court would by decree empower the said M. A. Guthrie to use, enjoy, sell and convey for her own benefit any property she may own or hereafter acquire, free from the claims of her husband, and to trade in her own name, and to dispose of her property by will or deed. It is ordered that a copy of this order be published in the Hopkinsville Kentuckian, a newspaper published in Hopkinsville, Christian county, Kentucky, the length of time prescribed by law.

Given under my hand, as Clerk of the Christian Circuit Court, this 9th day of Jan'y, 1889. CYRUS M. BROWN, Clerk. A copy. Att. CYRUS M. BROWN, Clerk. Joe McCarroll, Attorney. Feb. 1st

Christian Circuit Court.
M. A. GUTHRIE and SARAH E. GUTHRIE, his wife, vs. EX PARTE. This day came the petitioners, M. A. Guthrie and Sarah E. Guthrie, his wife, and filed their respective petitions in the office of the Clerk of the Christian Circuit Court, praying that the Court would by decree empower the said M. A. Guthrie to use, enjoy, sell and convey for her own benefit any property she may own or hereafter acquire, free from the claims of her husband, and to trade in her own name, and to dispose of her property by will or deed. It is ordered that a copy of this order be published in the Hopkinsville Kentuckian, a newspaper published in Hopkinsville, Christian county, Kentucky, the length of time prescribed by law.

Given under my hand, as Clerk of the Christian Circuit Court, this 9th day of Jan'y, 1889. CYRUS M. BROWN, Clerk. A copy. Att. CYRUS M. BROWN, Clerk. Joe McCarroll, Attorney. Feb. 1st

Christian Circuit Court.
M. A. GUTHRIE and SARAH E. GUTHRIE, his wife, vs. EX PARTE. This day came the petitioners, M. A. Guthrie and Sarah E. Guthrie, his wife, and filed their respective petitions in the office of the Clerk of the Christian Circuit Court, praying that the Court would by decree empower the said M. A. Guthrie to use, enjoy, sell and convey for her own benefit any property she may own or hereafter acquire, free from the claims of her husband, and to trade in her own name, and to dispose of her property by will or deed. It is ordered that a copy of this order be published in the Hopkinsville Kentuckian, a newspaper published in Hopkinsville, Christian county, Kentucky, the length of time prescribed by law.

Given under my hand, as Clerk of the Christian Circuit Court, this 9th day of Jan'y, 1889. CYRUS M. BROWN, Clerk. A copy. Att. CYRUS M. BROWN, Clerk. Joe McCarroll, Attorney. Feb. 1st

Christian Circuit Court.
M. A. GUTHRIE and SARAH E. GUTHRIE, his wife, vs. EX PARTE. This day came the petitioners, M. A. Guthrie and Sarah E. Guthrie, his wife, and filed their respective petitions in the office of the Clerk of the Christian Circuit Court, praying that the Court would by decree empower the said M. A. Guthrie to use, enjoy, sell and convey for her own benefit any property she may own or hereafter acquire, free from the claims of her husband, and to trade in her own name, and to dispose of her property by will or deed. It is ordered that a copy of this order be published in the Hopkinsville Kentuckian, a newspaper published in Hopkinsville, Christian county, Kentucky, the length of time prescribed by law.

Given under my hand, as Clerk of the Christian Circuit Court, this 9th day of Jan'y, 1889. CYRUS M. BROWN, Clerk. A copy. Att. CYRUS M. BROWN, Clerk. Joe McCarroll, Attorney. Feb. 1st

Christian Circuit Court.
M. A. GUTHRIE and SARAH E. GUTHRIE, his wife, vs. EX PARTE. This day came the petitioners, M. A. Guthrie and Sarah E. Guthrie, his wife, and filed their respective petitions in the office of the Clerk of the Christian Circuit Court, praying that the Court would by decree empower the said M. A. Guthrie to use, enjoy, sell and convey for her own benefit any property she may own or hereafter acquire, free from the claims of her husband, and to trade in her own name, and to dispose of her property by will or deed. It is ordered that a copy of this order be published in the Hopkinsville Kentuckian, a newspaper published in Hopkinsville, Christian county, Kentucky, the length of time prescribed by law.

Given under my hand, as Clerk of the Christian Circuit Court, this 9th day of Jan'y, 1889. CYRUS M. BROWN, Clerk. A copy. Att. CYRUS M. BROWN, Clerk. Joe McCarroll, Attorney. Feb. 1st

Christian Circuit Court.
M. A. GUTHRIE and SARAH E. GUTHRIE, his wife, vs. EX PARTE. This day came the petitioners, M. A. Guthrie and Sarah E. Guthrie, his wife, and filed their respective petitions in the office of the Clerk of the Christian Circuit Court, praying that the Court would by decree empower the said M. A. Guthrie to use, enjoy, sell and convey for her own benefit any property she may own or hereafter acquire, free from the claims of her husband, and to trade in her own name, and to dispose of her property by will or deed. It is ordered that a copy of this order be published in the Hopkinsville Kentuckian, a newspaper published in Hopkinsville, Christian county, Kentucky, the length of time prescribed by law.

Given under my hand, as Clerk of the Christian Circuit Court, this 9th day of Jan'y, 1889. CYRUS M. BROWN, Clerk. A copy. Att. CYRUS M. BROWN, Clerk. Joe McCarroll, Attorney. Feb. 1st

Christian Circuit Court.
M. A. GUTHRIE and SARAH E. GUTHRIE, his wife, vs. EX PARTE. This day came the petitioners, M. A. Guthrie and Sarah E. Guthrie, his wife, and filed their respective petitions in the office of the Clerk of the Christian Circuit Court, praying that the Court would by decree empower the said M. A. Guthrie to use, enjoy, sell and convey for her own benefit any property she may own or hereafter acquire, free from the claims of her husband, and to trade in her own name, and to dispose of her property by will or deed. It is ordered that a copy of this order be published in the Hopkinsville Kentuckian, a newspaper published in Hopkinsville, Christian county, Kentucky, the length of time prescribed by law.

Given under my hand, as Clerk of the Christian Circuit Court, this 9th day of Jan'y, 1889. CYRUS M. BROWN, Clerk. A copy. Att. CYRUS M. BROWN, Clerk. Joe McCarroll, Attorney. Feb. 1st

Christian Circuit Court.
M. A. GUTHRIE and SARAH E. GUTHRIE, his wife, vs. EX PARTE. This day came the petitioners, M. A. Guthrie and Sarah E. Guthrie, his wife, and filed their respective petitions in the office of the Clerk of the Christian Circuit Court, praying that the Court would by decree empower the said M. A. Guthrie to use, enjoy, sell and convey for her own benefit any property she may own or hereafter acquire, free from the claims of her husband, and to trade in her own name, and to dispose of her property by will or deed. It is ordered that a copy of this order be published in the Hopkinsville Kent